SUBJECT: SUDAN DENOUNCES SAMARRA BOMBING

Ref: State 28802

Sudan has denounced the bombing of the Askariyya Shrine in Samarra, Iraq, the Sudan News Agency (SUNA) reported on February 25. "The perpetrators of this heinous bombing conspires in order to create sedition among Muslims," said Ministry of Foreign Affairs spokesman Jamal Mohammed Ibrahim. Jamal urged vigilance against those who sought to distract the attention of Muslims from addressing challenges or repulsing attacks against the Islamic world. He also offered condolences to the government of the "Sisterly Republic of Iraq," and expressed hope that Muslims would maintain their unity and solidarity despite this "accident."
